SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF EDUCATION

AND CITIZENS OF JEFFERSON

This is the nineteenth of the series of annual reports. Its purpose is to inform the Board and Citizens of the progress made by the schools during the past year and to recommend policies for their continued improvement.

Shortly after the opening of school in September, Mr. Robert Fuller was elected to the the superintendency at Hanover, N. H., and in November his successor, Mr. William G. Fuller, assumed the superintendent's duties in the Lancaster Union.

It was a pleasure for the present superintendent to find the cordial relations that existed among the various school officials of Jefferson, and it is his earnest wish that these same conditions continue. The school system was found to be in excellent shape, and functioning with as high a degree of efficiency as could be expected in a system of its size. Small school systems suffer inevitable handicaps. The teachers must often carry a heavy teaching load, and the courses that can be offered are necesarrily limited.

HIGH SCHOOL

It is an especial source of gratification to note the steady improvement in conditions in the High School department. The standards of instruction and maintenance of discipline have both shown a decided improvement over the conditions that existed a few years ago. The striking progress along these lines is clearly demonstrated by the state inspectional reports, which have been most favorable for the past two years. A real appreciation for scholarship is being developed in the High School, and this has its origin in the elementary schools.

TEACHERS

Five new teachers joined our teaching force this year. It is inevitable that there be a rapid turnover in the teaching personnel, for after a year's experience, our teachers are able to command better salaries elsewhere.

The former principal of the High School, J. Murray Wright, resigned to take a position in the Longmeadow School at Springfield, Mass. and his place was filled by C. Maurice Gray of Alton, N. H., a graduate of Dartmouth College. Miss Margaret Nicholson, a three-year graduate of Plymouth Normal, was appointed to take charge of the intermediate grades at the Hill School. Miss Shirley Chamberlin of Lisbon was elected to teach in the lower grades at the Meadows, and Miss Nora Lang of Monroe was appointed to take charge of the school at the Highlands. The vacancy at Starrking was filled by Miss Elizabeth Carpenter of Lancaster, who is a graduate of Keene Normal.

FINANCES

The substantial state aid received this year will enable the district to close its books with a small balance on hand. Extra expense was caused this year by the need of repairs at the Highland School. Next years budget should show a small decrease in the estimated cost of schools, in spite of the fact that school costs are everywhere rising to higher levels. The finances seem to be on a sound basis, and it is the desire of the superintendent to maintain the Jefferson Schools at their high level without increase of present expenditures.

ATTENDANCE

The work of the schools has progressed along normal lines this year and the children have made a steady advance in their school work. The epidemic of grippe made inroads upon our attendance for a time, but the conditions in Jefferson were not so serious as in other places. The school at the Highlands, which was opened last year as a result of the flood conditions, continues to function in a satisfactory manner, and the Valley children are transported daily without apparent inconvenience. The arrival of several families in the Riverton district caused an increase in the enrollment of the school located there, and it was considered advisable to transport some of the pupils to the Hill school, in order to relieve Miss Monahan.

EXAMINATIONS

Several tests were given this year by the State Department of Education to the senior class in the High School. The four members of this class succeeded in making a score equal to the state average. Because of the small group comprising the intermediate grades in the Hill school it was possible for Miss Nicholson to instruct one of the Junior High School classes, thus relieving to a certain extent, the heavy teaching load of the regular teachers.

HEALTH

Under the direction of Miss Mildred Mattson, the school nurse, a definite health program has been inaugurated. The children have been taught the value of proper health habits, and the importance of the correct foods in maintaining health. The value of milk for growing children and the value of fruit and vegetables for all, has been stressed. Considerable dental work has been performed as a result of Miss Mattson's efforts.

REPAIRS

Considerable progress has been made during the past year, in placing the various school buildings in a good state of repair. The Meadows schoolhouse was newly shingled. The building at the Highlands was painted both inside and out, and new movable desks introduced. It is planned to repaint the Hill school this year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. It is advised that yearly repairs be made as occasion demands, so that the schools be kept in their present good condition.

2. It is urged that the present health program be continued.

3. It is also recommended that a definite guidance program be adopted for placing our graduates in positions suited to their abilities.

WILLIAM G. FULLER.
